

Program-at-a-Glance

The Sutton Place Hotel Edmonton | June 11-14, 2019

Tuesday, June 11
1830-2030 h	Opening Reception
Wednesday, June 12
0830-0845 h	Welcome & Opening Remarks
0845-1000 h	Opening Keynote: The Smartness Myth – the Real Secret to Success & Happiness in Your Academic Career Dr. Alexander Clark & Ms. Bailey Sousa, University of Alberta (authors of “How to be a Happy Academic”)
1030-1110 h	Oral Concurrent Sessions (Mini-sessions and SIGs)
1115-1215 h	Keynote: Are We Preparing Pharmacy Graduates to Succeed in a Value-Driven Health System?" Dr. Todd Sorensen, University of Minnesota
1300-1330 h	AFPC Annual Business Meeting & Townhall
1330-1515 h	Roundtable Sessions: Current Topics in Pharmacy Education
1515-1700 h	Poster Viewing and Oral Concurrent Sessions (Mini-sessions and SIGs)
1800-2200 h	AFPC Awards Reception & Banquet at the Art Gallery of Alberta
Thursday, June 13
0830-1010 h	Faculty Updates
1040-1125 h	Associate Deans Leadership Session: Dr. Scot Simpson, University of Alberta Dr. Yvonne Shevchuk, University of Saskatchewan Dr. Sandra Jarvis Selinger, University of British Columbia
1130-1210 h	Oral Concurrent Sessions (Mini-sessions and SIGs)
1300-1430 h	Oral Concurrent Sessions (Mini-sessions and SIGs)
1500-1600 h	Closing Keynote: Reflections on AFPC’s 75th Anniversary How the Past Informs the Future with Regards to Pharmacy Teaching and Practice Dr. Jamie Kellar, University of Toronto
1800-2100 h	Post-CPERC Indigenization Symposium (additional registration fee) Truth and Reconciliation in Canadian Pharmacy Education
Friday, June 14
0800-1230 h	Post-CPERC Indigenization Symposium (additional registration fee) Truth and Reconciliation in Canadian Pharmacy Education